

Members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors attended committee meetings and a director's session of the California Real Estate Assn. held at the El Cortez Hotel in San Diego, it was announced by Jack Schmidt, president of the board.

Legislative subcommittees of the association met and discussed proposed legislation affecting real estate and property owners which may be considered by the state legislature in 1963.

More than 30 different committees concerned with various phases of the real estate business and association activities met and the board of directors (over 800 members) held their 335th session at the El Cortez.

A SPECIAL conference on real estate exchanges and real estate board multiple services was held.

A special demonstration on automation in the field of real estate exchanges and multiple listing services was conducted.

Former ECC Students Take UCLA Honors

Names of former El Camino College engineering students who have been recognized for honors while enrolled at UCLA were released this week by Vern W. Robinson, associated director, relations with schools.

In a letter to Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of El Camino, Robinson listed the students elected to Tau Beta Phi, national honor fraternity for students majoring in engineering.

Those elected in 1961 were Harold Bradley, Glenn Ronald Smith and Neil Tillitt.

Elected in 1962 were Lloyd R. Anastasi, David Drakowski, Don Eakin, James G. Gee, Ken Kobayashi, Frank Kenneth Rickman and John Roche.

Graduating with honors from the college of engineering was White Jermaine Harris.

Music major Gary Edward Diehl graduated with honors at this time from UCLA's college of fine arts.

CREATIVE ARTS SET

A new creative arts program for boys and girls 9 to 15 years old will begin at El Retiro Park July 5.

This program, offered by the Torrance Recreation Department, will give the children creative experience in drama, dance and art. A combination drama presentation, art exhibit and dance concert will be presented by the workshop co-operating with the modern dance classes, drama workshop and the Arts and Crafts Center. The creative workshop will write, build, paint and do the choreography.

Classes, under the direction of Marilyn Dallara, drama; Joan Maguire, dance; and Erika Muhl, stagecraft, will meet on Thursday afternoons from 1 to 4 p. m. The session will continue for seven weeks.

Registration will take place at El Retiro Park, 126 Vista del Parque, July 5. To cover the cost of materials there will be a $3 fee.

Rockhounds Meet In Harbor City

The Palos Verdes Gem and Mineral Society will hold its regular monthly meeting on July 3 at 8 p. m. in the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Belleporte Ave., Harbor City.

Guest speaker will be Col. C. M. Jenni, (USA, Ret.), Curator of Mineralogy for the University of Missouri. His subject will be "The Minerals of Crestmore Quarry in Riverside."

Crestmore Quarry is numbered among the top three localities in the world in the number of mineral varieties to be found. Col. Jenni is an authority on the Crestmore minerals. He is the author of a series of articles on the subject.
